1. It has been confirmed that VUJA (Military Administration of Yugoslav Army) is the equivalent of AMO for governing Zone "B" and is under the command of General Holjevac. It has a main headquarters in Abbazia, and sub-sections are located in Pisino, Albona, Aidussina and in Postumia.
2. In civil affairs matters it is controlled by the Government in Belgrade and comes under the 4th Army jurisdiction in Ljubljana. It is divided into five sections, each commanded by an officer assisted by experts, lawyers, economists, financiers, diplomats and officials of the Ministry of the Interior.
3. VUJA also includes a military-political intelligence office commanded by a senior regular army officer. This is located in Villa Gisella in Abbazia [redacted] For this purpose it issues permits authorizing movement from Zone "B" to Zone "A".
4. There is also a unit called "Vojni Urad Jugoslavenska Armije" which is the military intelligence office of the Yugoslav Army. Its main task is to obtain military information [redacted] and its operating directives are quite different from those of the VUJA. Sections of the "Vojni Urad" are in Aidussina, Postumia [redacted]
